

The dept. of Philosophy, in collaboration with the IQAC, organized a seminar on the topic "ethics of the Bhagavad Gita" <sup>dt. 12.09.23</sup> as part of its academic and spiritual discourse initiatives. This session featured Dr. Pramod K. Dash, Head of the Department of Philosophy, Nayagarh Autonomous College, Nayagarh, a renowned scholar in Indian Philosophy and ethics, as a keynote speaker. The seminar aimed to explore the ethical principles of the Bhagavad Gita and their relevance in addressing contemporary challenges in both personal and societal context.

The seminar was presided over by the principal of B.S. College, Daspalla, Mrs. Subash Chandra Nayak. The Head of the Dept. of Philosophy, Mrs. Khizad Chandra Mohanty and other faculty members contributed significantly to the success of the event through their support and efforts. Approximately 85 students actively participated in the seminar. The seminar concluded with an engaging interactive session, during which participants posed thought-provoking questions. Dr. Dash provided practical insights into applying the Gita's teachings in daily life, emphasizing the importance of self-awareness, mindfulness and ethical decision-making.

(K.T.T.)

Dept of Philosophy
B.S. College
Daspalla

The dept of philosophy, in collaboration with the internal quality assurance cell (IAAC), organized a seminar on the topic "The concept of liberation" on 2nd February 2024 as part of its academic and spiritual discourse initiatives. The session featured Dr. Kailash Chandra Moharana a distinguished scholar in Indian philosophy and ethics, as the keynote speaker. The seminar aimed to explore the philosophical understanding of liberation (moksha) and its relevance in contemporary personal and societal contexts.

3...

The seminar was presided over by the principal of B.S college, Daspalla, Mr. Subash Chandra Nayak. The head of the department, Mr. Khirad Chandramohan along with other faculty members, played a crucial role in ensuring the success of the event through their dedicated efforts. Approximately 85 students enthusiastically participated in the seminar.

The seminar concluded with a vibrant interactive session, where participants posed insightful questions on the practical implication of the concept of liberation. Dr. Moharana provided profound explanation, emphasizing the pathways to liberation through self-awareness, detachment, and ethical living, while also highlighting its timeless relevance in navigating modern challenges.

(VVT)
02.2.2024
HOD
Prof. (P)
B.S. College
Daspalla

3